

for communication, and several marketers, business owners, and community owners tend to use them to automate tasks on their servers.

You can find Discord bots either on the discord bot list such as top.gg, or you can go directly to their website. You can then add discord bots from the bot list or their website by inviting them to your server. Discord bots work in the same way as a usual server invite, so it will automatically appear on your server after inviting the bot. Once you add them, you will be able to use their bot commands right from your server. All the best Discord bots are free to use. However, some consist of certain paid features that you can upgrade.

There are numerous Discord bots available online. It can sometimes get tricky to decide which ones to add to your server. Here we have compiled a list of the top 15 Discord bots that anyone can use.

1. MEE6

MEE6 allows you to create custom commands for automatically providing users with their roles and send texts in the main channel or via DMs based on specific actions. The setup of welcome messaging and automation of roles is pretty simple. Using just a few commands, you will be able to engage with your community without manual effort. Customisation is the best feature of MEE6.

With this bot, you can automatically kick out members who don't follow the community rules, post unwanted links, use foul language, or promotions. It is the best bot you can use for moderating your servers. You can configure the MEE6 bot according to your requirements.
