

Aside from that, Verticons also changes the unsupported icons into a vertical orientation so that everything looks in place. This app also has a pro version which doubles the number of apps supported by this icon pack and unlocks custom made wallpapers that go really well with the icon pack too. We think that it's worth the price and if you really dig these icons, you should consider buying the pro version.

Here are some of the icons from the icon pack:

