

- Regularly destroy crucial documents. Bank statements, student loan information, and other account information should be physically destroyed in a cross-shredder or placed in one of the cremated blue or grey secured containers.

