

the dialog with complete integration of the KDE file chooser. As a Web kit-based browser, it comes with standard Web kit features like web inspector, JavaScript settings, and loading plugins. This browser has privacy settings like incognito browsing. Users can also clear the privately managed data and cookies. This browser also lets you make a clone of an existing tab by detaching them and making them into a new window.

Firefox

Firefox is one of the most famous internet browsers with great credibility. Many internet users prefer to use the Mozilla Firefox browser because of its safety and quick-loading features. Firefox has several security advantages thus if a PC is installed with this software it usually doesn't get easily infected by malicious programs downloaded unknowingly.

Why you must get it:

As a browser, Firefox is equipped to face several threats and malware. This app has advanced security features that block most kinds of threats