

after you end your Google Slide presentation. Also, If you use Google through your work, school, or other organizations, you can choose who can submit questions:

In the “Presenter view” window, click Audience tools and change “Accepting questions from...”

How to show questions asked by audience?

Presenters can display questions asked by audience in a presentation:

- Under “Audience Tools,” find a question to display.
- Click Present.
- To change the question, find a different question and click Present.

- To hide the question, click Hide.
- How to Review recent sessions?

Presenters can see questions from recent Q&A sessions:

- Open a Slides presentation.
- At top, click Tools and then Q&A history.
- Recent sessions appear on the right.
- Ask a question

How can audience members can ask questions in a presentation:

- Go to the link at the top of the presentation.
- Click Ask a question... and type a question.