

While a newbie webmaster might be able to launch their website without much technical knowledge, being a WordPress developer demands a lot more complex skill set. However, with a bit of perseverance, you can quickly learn the fundamentals of WordPress and launch your website.

According to statistics from W3Techs, WordPress is utilized by 43.2% of all websites live on the internet in the current year, 2022. This is an increase from 39.5% in 2021. Thus, WordPress is used by two out of every five websites. So, if you are in a business that functions around a website or planning to set up a website, then this FastTrack is for you!

This comprehensive FastTrack will include a simple step-by-step procedure for building your individual WordPress website and a list of helpful advice for using WordPress. 