

It's a good idea to begin with between three and five episodes.

Submit To Apple Podcasts (iTunes)

If you want to submit your podcast to iTunes through Buzzsprout, click the Apple Podcasts tab under the Directories menu, and then follow the procedures that they've put out.

After that, you should take the RSS feed for your podcast and submit it to a number of additional podcast directories.

Your RSS feed will be automatically updated whenever you upload new episodes, and any podcast directory that you are listed on will also be updated whenever you submit a new episode of your podcast.

Spread The Word

Create teaser films with the help of Buzzsprout's social sharing feature, and then go to work spreading the word!

Buzzsprout's in-app video soundbite maker is at your disposal.

Having it integrated into your host makes it incredibly easy to create (and it won't cost you any more), but there are other companies that will assist you generate different forms of audiograms.

If you want to make more personalised podcast videos that you can share with others, two fantastic options are Wavve and Headliner.

You may find a variety of additional advertising strategies in the page that is dedicated to podcast promotion, which you should read. Creating your own website is likely to have the most impact of all of these
