

Create Show Notes

Show notes can be transcriptions like above, a simple summary of what you talked about, or a full blog post tailored more toward reading than listening.

Some people do a combination.

Embed Your Episode

People will be able to listen to your podcast directly from your website if you copy the embed code for the episode and publish it on the show notes page. 