Gods Of Our Time

Seek you salvation? Or seek you inner peace? Or maybe you fall under the world domination category like the rest of us?

Flying Spaghetti Monster

His Holy Noodliness, the Flying Spaghetti Monster is the ultimate truth in the universe. It lies in the center of the religion known as Flying Spaghetti Monsterism or Pastafarianism. To them it is Creator and Overseer, watching over us and the world and changing it as it sees fit.

Cthulhu

The Great One is an ancient aquatic creature who rose from his lowly origins as a Japanese porn star to become a God. Thanks to H. P. Lovecraft and some clever publicity, Cthulhu gained a reputation for omnipotence. All hail Cthulhu!

Morgan Freeman

Morgan Freeman is a well known escape artist, politician, voice actor, and God. Morgan Freeman was born old. He doesn't need to procreate, a baby simply appears when he smiles. Bruce Almighty was non-fiction for him.

The Force

The Force can make stuff float and make people do stuff for you. Supreme Lord George Lucas was the first to discover The Force and he mentions it in his 7-part documentary – Star Wars. Mark Hamill can use it, but Harrison Ford cannot.

The Latter-Day Dude

An ancient philosophy that practices as little as possible, preaches not preaching, and uh...what were we talking about again? Anyway, you want peace on earth and goodwill, man? We'll get you started on the path of Dudeism, bro.

Sheogorath

No list of deities is complete without the Daedric Prince of Madness, and everybody knows who he is. He says so himself. "I am a part of you, little mortal. I am a shadow of your subconscious, a blemish on your fragile little psyche. You know me. You just don't know it."
