

MB&F Astrograph

We've all pretended our pens were rocketships during our childhood. Classes could get pretty boring and all we had to entertain us was our imaginations. But we don't really need to imagine a pen as a rocket anymore, because the Astrograph is not just a luxury pen, this mechanical pen IS a rocket pen, complete with a rocket-shaped fuselage, miniature astronaut, shock-absorbing landing gear and even a launch pad which doubles as a case. You've basically got a mini rocket and launch pad for your desk. The MB&F Astrograph has been in the making for four years, so you may have heard of this pen in the past, but after four years in the works, there's no doubt that the Astrograph is one of the most complex writing instruments to ever grace us, period. The Astrograph comes with sand blasted, satin-finished, and rhodium-components. To add to that, it's got a lever which controls the stabilizer legs, which once lowered makes it possible for you to stand the Astrograph up vertically. As a bonus, they've thrown in a miniature astronaut too!

APP WATCH

Voot

Voot is essentially the video streaming platform for Viacom 18, one of India's leading television channel networks. There is a great deal of focus on diverse and regional content being available on the app. Also, there are some pretty handy features on the app like the Kids mode. Voot tries to make series watching an enjoyable experience, with social tools allowing to chose from a few fixed reactions to share the way you feel about that particular video. A combination of great content and fun social features sets Voot apart from other emerging platforms

Attenborough's Story of Life

First of all, if you haven't experienced the BBC Planet Earth documentary, go watch it now. But if you have, you should familiar with the way the show portrays epic moments from nature. This app is all about reliving 1000 of those wildlife experiences, from across multiple shows like Planet Earth, Blue Planet, The Life of Mammals and more. And once you are done with that, you can view content curated by Sir David himself. Interestingly, this app also features hidden films shot just for this app.

Aino

After a quick login with your mobile number, Aino reveals its true nature - a comprehensive accumulation of customer care of various brands in one app. For example, the main page has categories, out of which the 'Top Rated' one is what we used. If you select one brand, say 'ASUS', you will be taken to the landing page of ASUS, where you enter your CIN no if you have one. Following that you can chose what type of query, request or complaint you have.
