More battles for Qualcomm

The company reportedly sued Foxconn, Pegatron, Wistron and Compal Electronics over non-payments of royalties. <http://dgit.in/Qualsue>

Serious RAM-ifications

<http://dgit.in/AmznRAM>

A forum member of ours claims to have been cheated when buying an M.2 chip from Amazon. Have you been cheated when buying anything online? If you have you should post about it on our forum and let India know about it. Nothing fixes service problems faster than having your complaint post show up in Google when doing a search for a product... We will be following up with this member to ensure justice is done.

How ridiculous is this? First time happening to me in my life.

Ordered an M.2 2280 850 EVO from Amazon through their retailer Cloudtail which apparently is the biggest electronics retailer for Amazon. They had the audacity to send me a RAM MODULE with an SSD logo EVO controller all that shit pasted on it!

Shittiest thing to have happened! I've set my laptop with all setups and the windows image to reinstall windows on it! Never been so disappointed.

I'll register a complain Amazon, but any help on how to get through this swiftly and painlessly?

A Far Cry from interesting

<http://dgit.in/Farcry5>

Not all discussions are serious though... In fact, some of them are a 'far cry' from being so. Wait, we already did that, didn't we? Guess we can't help it, it's Ubisoft after all.

Vegans everywhere!

<http://dgit.in/VegVSNVeg>

We're a little biased on this one, because we believe chicken is an essential vegetable... What do you think?

Vegetarian vs Non Vegetarian.

Vegan Non vegan.

Meat Vs No Meat:

All fish no meat? All Milk no meat...

Let me start by saying that personally I am a non-vegetarian and I have been a non-vegan throughout my life.

But if I have to choose between a vegan and non-vegan lifestyle then I will choose vegan.

Why you may ask?

Because I feel vegetarian is healthier. Also it prevents treating animals, birds and other living creatures (which have an immune and nervous system and are self conscious) as food (specially birds like chickens etc.)

So let's start the debate- Which is better Veg vs Non veg?

 kamfameha!!

Eat what you want to, let others do the same. If you consume any milk product, don't be a cow-vigilante or "veg is better" preacher.
