

digit diary

If you are ever curious about what the Digit gang is up to, this is the place to get all the inside info. From the latest game we're obsessing about to the newest intern we're driving up the wall – it's all here folks.

This month went by so fast we didn't know it till it hit us in the face. By hit us in the face, we mean with closing. It's always closing, we don't really know why we mention it at this point. We should just start our diaries with "it happened again" and you guys would know what we're talking about. If that wasn't enough of a distraction, both Flipkart and Amazon had sales around the same time too. Now, most of us would breeze past the listings just for the sake of it. Little did we know that Mithun was actually planning to buy a new phone, who sneakily went on to buy one.

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"Let's land in Mylta Power and kill off the enemies!"
Own team dies!

Long time Padawan, Yangerlong "Anger" Jamir, who'd been with us for just about a year left us this month. We're sure he must have been ecstatic to leave, he was positively beaming when he told us it was his last day! Jokes aside, we wish him the best with whatever he does next.

Earlier this year, Mithun had picked up a PS4 Pro while he was in the States. Yes, the same #PCMasterRace Mithun. So of course, it was just rotting in his house. He finally decided to bring the console to office, to give it the love it deserves.

PUBG is still the hottest thing to happen here since CS:GO. You say CS:GO and people here go "what's that?" PUBG is love, PUBG is life. But while everyone is fully vested in PUBG, Manish – the very guy who convinced everyone to get the game in the first place – seems to have all but stopped playing the game. He's been spending most of his time on Guild Wars 2, probably grinding or doing whatever them MMO players do.

The rains hit pretty hard this time, and then there were the thunderstorms. Naturally, we never left home without an umbrella. Arnab lost his unfortunately. He had a grandfather umbrella, the kind that can pretty much be used as a walking stick. It added to his overall hipster vibe. We dubbed it the hipster-brella (Well, Mithun did really, that's his department). Maybe he'll find a replacement in one those sales we mentioned...

DISCUSSIONS

Every month we will highlight some of the more interesting discussions happening on our Digit Forum (digit.in/forum). Head over and join our forum if you want quick answers to your queries from some of the geekiest Indians online. In case you love giving gyaan, or even if you love arguing with others, the Forum is the place you should be.

Graphics card manufacturing in India

<http://digit.in/GPUIndiaTDF>

Have you been wondering why graphics cards aren't manufactured in India? A few of our community members got together to discuss about this problem. Not just graphics cards, the discussion moved on to processors as well.

Security in Android and iOS

<http://digit.in/SecrtyTDF>

An argument (a constructive one) has broken out in our forum regarding security in Android and iOS devices. Several members have chimed in to drop their two cents to the debate on how secure the phones are in each platform.

Booman hates the iPhone X

<http://digit.in/BooManX>

Whenever there's an Apple event, you can expect BooMan to even rise from the dead. This time, even Agent001 couldn't hold back from participating in the discussion and we all can guess how that would have turned out to be.
