

Back up your data

It's probably wisest to keep backing up your Facebook account data. Not that we think it will shut down or anything, but servers are known to crash, and accounts have been deleted or hacked into in the recent past...

◀ STEP 1

Click on Account Settings

Click on Download a copy of your Facebook data

Download your information

Get a copy of what you've shared on Facebook

Easily download and browse through a personal archive of your Facebook photos, posts and messages. Learn more about downloading a copy of your information.

Start My Archive

What's in your archive?

- Any photos or videos you've shared on Facebook
- Your Wall posts, messages and chat conversations
- Your friends' names and some of their email addresses

(Note: We'll only include email addresses for friends who've allowed this in their account settings.)

What's not in your archive?

- Your friends' photos and status updates
- Other people's personal info
- Comments you've made on other people's posts

Caution: Protect your archive

Your Facebook archive includes sensitive info like your private Wall posts, photos and messages. Think about this in mind before storing, sending or uploading your archive to any other site.

◀ STEP 3

Click Start my Archive

▼ STEP 4

Click on Start my archive, again

Request my download

It may take a little while for us to gather all of your photos, wall posts, messages and other information. We will then ask you to verify your identity in order to help protect the security of your account.
