

Windows XP formatting the partition

Copying setup files to the hard drive

Reboot screen after completion of file copying

- Next, the format process starts, and sometime later the computer reboots. Then you see the GUI setup screen.
- Now, you see the screen where you have to specify the regional settings such as the 'Language and regional settings'. Then click 'Next'.

Customizing Regional and Language options in Windows XP