

From there you can open, dismiss, or ‘snooze’ multiple reminders with a single click.

To work with multiple reminders, first select the first reminder. Hold down [Ctrl]. Select any additional reminders. Click ‘Open Item’, ‘Dismiss’, or ‘Snooze’.

Return Meeting Responses To The Right Person

Most administrative assistants have permission to send meeting requests from their bosses’ accounts—but sometimes, responses to those meeting requests end up in their bosses’ mailboxes. Here’s a way to return responses to the administrative assistant.

You can grant someone permission to send e-mail requests for you by using the ‘Delegate Access’ feature: go to Tools > Options, click the ‘Delegates’ tab, and click ‘Add’. With that done, it’s easy to specify that responses be returned to that person as a delegate.

To return responses to delegates, go to Tools > Options, and then click the ‘Delegates’ tab. Select ‘Send meeting requests and responses only to my delegates, not to me’.

Save Multiple Attachments Simultaneously

When you receive an Outlook message containing several attached files, you don’t have to open and save each file separately. You can save multiple attachments to the same location in a single step.

Click ‘Save Attachments’ on the ‘File’ menu. When the ‘Save All Attachments’ dialog box opens, click OK. Then select the folder where you want to save the files, and click ‘OK’.

When you use this shortcut, you must save all the files to the same folder. To save each attachment to a different folder, you will need to save them individually.

Get Rid Of Space-Stealing Files In Outlook

When it’s time to clean up their mailboxes, most people have trouble finding and deleting the messages that take up the most space,
