

place to keep track of international football matches and tournaments like the Confederation Cup and the recently concluded Youth World Cup.

www.atptennis.com & www.wtatour.com

These official websites are your best guide to the men's and women's tour respectively. These sites serve up all the updates of the tournaments and exhibition matches that are taking place across the globe. Davis Cup, Federation Cup, The Masters Tour or the Grand Slams, you'll have all your tennis fill from here.

www.chessclub.com

We've scoured the web for some of the best chess sites and come up with one that is really good, both in terms of information and play. You can actually log into the site, for a fee of course, and play games against various opponents, some of who could also be Grandmasters. Go on check your mate...er or something like that.
