

www.big6.com/kids

Targeted at kids from different age groups, this site offers every thing a school going child would want. You can find videos, homework related queries, help with academic work and also provides wholesome entertainment. And for those first time crushes you can also check whether your crush likes you.

www.haringkids.com

The official Keith Haring website for children. This fun interactive website has a lot of activities to inspire a love of learning and art. The site also has sections dedicated to online books, authorised art shows.

