To start using the site, one has to first login. If you don't already have a username then you can register for a free account. The registration process seems fairly simple and straight forward. Having done that, the user can proceed to asking a question.

Questions on the site are charged between USD $5 to USD $250 (about Rs 200 to 10,000). The researchers at Uclue guarantee that a question will be answered within 21 days, if there is no answer within that timeframe, the user receives a refund. Also, if

The screenshot shows the Uclue website interface. At the top, it says "Uclue" and "a good question? asked". There is a search bar and a "Search" button. Below the navigation bar, there is a "Welcome!" section with a message from the Uclue team. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column is titled "Recently answered questions (10/10)" and lists several questions with their respective ratings. The right column is titled "Browse by Category" and lists various categories such as Arts and Entertainment, Business and Money, Family and Home, and Health.
