

Gmail account and click OK, then Finish. Sit back and watch as your calendar begins to fill up with the details from your Google Calendar!

You can add many more calendars. Note, however, that currently Lightning does not support offline viewing of

Provide a name for the calendar

View Google Calendar events in Thunderbird's Lightning Calendar

calendar data from Google or any other calendar server. If you lose the Internet connection, your data will not be displayed any longer. However, any events you create in Thunderbird will be reflected in Google Calendar and vice versa.