

the Text Tool on the stage. The Text box can be set to contain Static Text, Input Text or Dynamic Text.

Static text means the text that remains unchanged throughout the presentation. Dynamic Text changes depending on the condition set by the developer. Input text is the Text box where the user can type when the presentation is running.