

The next step is to design the interface of the DVD. Add a background by going to DVDMenu > Add Background. Navigate your system and find a photo you would like to use as the background. Invariably, the photo will not be of the right size, so click yes when prompted to change the size to be suitable for viewing on TV.

