

If you use the application often enough, you can create profiles for your rainbow tables to quickly load them.

In less than a minute after selecting the rainbow tables, we have the decrypted plaintext for the hash. We used the hash for "idqd" as given before. A few minutes later the application fails to find a plaintext for the "iddqD" hash, since we only generated tables for lowercase.