

be recommended by most of your clients. Payment gateways are priced exorbitantly by some. If your reseller is offering you this service for cheap, opt for it.

4.3.3 Control panels and selling interfaces that make business functions

Again, simplicity is very important. There are complex functions that you can add, but if the process of testing and verifying it becomes complicated and time consuming then, at times, you are better off rather without them. A simple but robust control panel is the ideal scenario. Once you use the demo, get a feel of it. If you don't feel comfortable, look at options from other service providers.

4.3.4 Reliable support

Some resellers offer 24x7 tech support for all your customers. All you need to do is handle the transactions. In fact some may even handle that for you. You get a commission for referring the customer to their network. This helps you when you are unable to decide or if you're troubleshooting.

4.3.5 Regular promotions to push sales

In order to push sales for your business, your clients should know of your special offers. If you're offering special discounts for New Years, your client need to know. For this several resellers offer tools to create quick ads and promotions.

4.3.6 Easy modes to pay the provider

Offers on Domains

The first step in creating your client's web site is booking a domain. First things first. Your client would be equally interested in pricing and so would verify prices across domain registrars. Being able to offer the lowest prices for domains ensure that your client has a leaning towards choosing your service. Finally, you should be able to transact in more ways possible. In India, for instance, net banking is a useful feature, especially in case you don't have a credit card or don't prefer using one. Similarly, getting hold of international transfers can be quite painful and costly too. However, for matters such as these, it is expected you have a credit card that you can use at any moment. Generally, web hosting providers also provide domain registration services and in order to get you latched on to them, pass on the most exciting offers to you. For example, interesting offers on the latest TLDs are always highlighted on most web sites.

The latest one in the offering is the .co domain that is all over the place. We are yet to see sites of significance using these domains! Depending on the name of your client's company or business, you
