

download-monitor/)

This plugin works with Wordpress 2.5 or above. The main function of this plugin is to manage uploads and downloads. It also tracks download hits, and displaying link

Subscribe to Comments (wordpress.org/extend/plugins/subscribe-to-comments/)

The main function of this plugin is that it lets visitors/commenters to sign up for email notifications. The plugin has an inbuilt subscription manager which the commenters can use to unsubscribe to certain blogs or posts, change their email address or block all notifications.

Register Plus (wordpress.org/extend/plugins/register-plus/)

Register Plus plugin gives you the following features:

Custom Logo: Upload your logo in place of the Wordpress logo

Password field: Get your site visitors to set their own password, also include the password strength bar on the profile page

Invitation Codes

Track where your users are coming from and whom to send out the invite

Captcha Validation

Don't let spambots register with own passwords and other details. The captcha validation comes added in this plugin

DMSGuestbook (wordpress.org/extend/plugins/dmsguestbook/)

This plugin includes the following features:

- Simple work on the attitudes over front-end (e.g. text color, guestbook width, border color...)
- Extended attitude possibility over the CSS file
- Preset DMSGuestbook caption text in different languages
- Every guestbook has his own language template
- Make your own language template in few minutes

Joomla

Advance Module Manager (extensions.joomla.org/extensions/access-a-security/modules-management/10307).

Keep control of your modules with the Advance Module Manager. It allows you to edit and see which modules are active for a specific menu item. Changes can be made to your modules in a modal popup window.