

Before you get started, make sure that your microphone is connected to your computer.

Set up your microphone

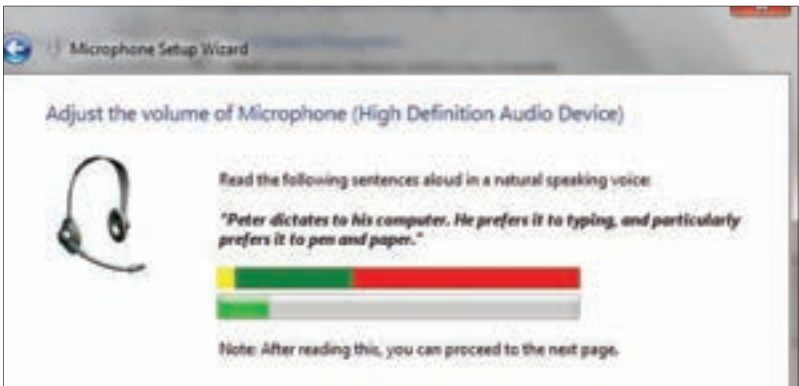

Open Windows Speech Recognition by typing it in the Start Menu search box. Click Set up microphone and then follow the instructions on the screen.

Set up your microphone to ensure WSR doesn't pick up background noise

Window that comes to guide you through the 'Set up Microphone'

Reading out sentences to calibrate your microphone