

box and click Invite to chat. A note will appear in their Chat list letting them know that you want to chat with them. Before you can chat with someone, they must also add you to their chat list.

- ▶ Circles: After you've enabled chat you can select the circles that are allowed to chat with you by clicking on the arrow next to Chat and selecting Circles from the drop down menu.

When someone adds you to their circle, you'll be able to see them in your chat list.

How to start a chat conversation

This might be too basic for many of the chatting freaks out there. But, just brushing up the basics:

You can start a chat conversation by clicking on the person you want to chat with in the Chat list situated to the left of the screen.

Once you click on the person you want to chat with, a white chat image should replace the "green" online symbol and a chat window should open up.

Chat Window

In the chat video, you can see various options. To the left you can see 3 options for video, audio chat and an option to add people to an existing chat. With the last option you can start a group chat by start a conversation (chat) with a person and then add people to the same chat by typing their name or e-mail id in the box. To get out of a group chat, click on "X" button. But, if you want to get back to the group chat, then you would require an invite to the group chat.

Action Drop Down

By clicking on the "Actions" menu, a drop-down will appear. You can find options to-

- ▶ Go off the record: This won't save any of the conversation you have with this person in this chat.
- ▶ Block [person name]: This option will block this person and he won't be able to see if you are online.
