

WHAT IS ECOMMERCE?

Find out what e-commerce is really about and everything else you need to know about the current state of this realm in India

Internet, E-Commerce, Daily Deals, and Click-n-Mortar are all terms that are present in our daily vocabularies today. But, try mentioning these words to your great grandparents and they will probably give you a quizzical look, as it means nothing to them. The world as we know it today has changed and evolved from the world we knew ten years ago. Now, someone sitting in Australia buys “cool things” from a daily deal site in New Zealand which sources its products from China that are made by people
