

TOP 10 BUDGET TABLETS

Our list of the Best Budget Tablets in India across various platforms. Top 10 Budget tablets are primarily based on Google Android OS. These Budget tablets are priced below Rs. 15,000. Based on data available as of 01-05-2013

|                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | 1   GOOGLE NEXUS 7Stock Android, access to the latest Google OS, Google Now and a smooth interface.                             |
|    | 2   IBERRY AUXUS COREX2 3GGreat performance, an impressive display, and ability to make voice calls.                            |
|    | 3   SAMSUNG GALAXY TAB 2Dual-core processor, smooth interface and the ability to make calls.                                    |
|    | 4   LAVA E-TAB XTRONThe Xtron has a very capable processor, offers Jelly Bean and is well built.                                |
|    | 5   VIDEOCON VT10The V10 boasts of a good battery life, 10-inch display and smooth performance                                  |
|   | 6   SPICE STELLAR PADThe Stellar Pad has loud speakers, smooth video playback, a good crisp display and longlasting battery     |
|  | 7   ACER ICONIA B1The B1 runs on Jelly Bean and offers good user experience by ensuring close to vanilla android UI             |
|  | 8   IBERRY AUXUS COREX4 3GThe Auxus CoreX4 3G boasting of an IPS display, 6-hour battery life and a quad-core powerhouse CPU    |
|  | 9   WICKEDLEAK WAMMY DESIREOne of the better built 7-inch tablets running Jelly Bean, recommended for anyone on a tight budget. |