Rahul Mathur

The youngest of the lot at 21 years, Rahul develops for Windows Phone and is currently interning with the Walt Disney Company in Mumbai. He is responsible for the WP app, Instant Access that has been downloaded over 20,000 times.

Now that you're familiar with them, here's what they had to say about life as an indie developer:

On choosing to become an indie developer

Sreekanth, Raja and Shanthi said their decision was based on their excitement at the potential of mobile apps and how they were connecting with users at a personal level and changing lives at the ground level on a day to day basis.

Nirmit and Rahul were more pragmatic with Nirmit looking at earning some money and strengthening his resume by developing apps. Rahul came from a coding background and then joined the Microsoft Student Partner program, following which he realised that the WP App Store was anemic and decided to make apps for it.

Picking the ecosystems to develop for Sreekanth started developing first for iOS because of its simplicity and ease of testing. However, he soon recognised the numbers behind Android and began developing for it as well. Nirmit exploited his background in Microsoft .Net and developing soft-
