

well as issues of access to information and government regulation of new media.

Course Access Link: <http://webcast.berkeley.edu/>

Other useful links for free online e-learning

Open Education Consortium

It is a community of higher education institutes and organisations that have come together to promote open education. The website features hundreds of courses from a lot of famous institutes.

Course Access Link: <http://www.oeconsortium.org>

Open Culture

Founded by Dan Colman, the Director & Associate Dean of Stanford University's Continuing Studies Program, the Open Culture website features 950 free online courses from top universities, 600 free ebooks, 200 free kids educational resources, and various others.

Course Access Link: <http://www.openculture.com/>

HP Life

Although not a university course, it is a very useful initiative. The HP Life programme is a learning initiative for entrepreneurs and hosts courses in various subjects that an entrepreneur will need to start a business.

<http://www.life-global.org/en> 