

digit diary

If you are ever curious about what the Digit gang is up to, this is the place to get all the inside info. From the latest game we're obsessing about to the newest intern we're driving up the wall – it's all here folks.

The psychosis-inducing summer heat is finally here and we who sit on the top floor, 2-feet beneath the ceiling feel the brunt of it like no other. Especially when the AC falters and sputters to keep the place cool. Speaking of ACs, ours has undergone a demonic possession of late. Why you ask? Because it spews out dragon breath! It's a direct hotline to Satan's bed chambers. It puts Drogon and Balerion – the Black Dread to shame. Glowing briquettes of coal are ice cubes in comparison. It ... you get the message, right?

Just when we're about to become kebabs, we're told that the Digit office will have a power-cut ... FOR TWO WHOLE DAYS! Thankfully, the overlord was merciful this time and we promptly proceeded to pack our work machines to take home. If you've received your magazine in time and don't find any obituary pages in the mag, then know that we've survived.

As April comes to an end, we run into one of the busiest and most punishing times at Digit i.e. time to prepare for the June Special issue + Crack The Code. The path towards the June issue is littered with shards of broken glass, rusty nails and flesh-eating bacteria. But we don't walk this treacherous path alone, no siree. We lay down a carpet of interns on whom we trod with a ~~light~~ heavy heart. The first intern to sacrifice herself for this noble cause is Dhriti. She is being prepped for this horrific task the same way a sacrificial lamb is prepared for the altar. Her trials and tribulations across the Intern Enrichment Programme 3.0 shall be documented thoroughly ... for your enjoyment.

Gaming has been on a lull this month, Manish and Mithun having put Warframe on the backburner. Manish has returned to the toxic realm of LoL while Mithun has sought refuge in the arms of Arena of Valor. All while Aditya sheds a tear at the loss of two players from the Warframe community. Last we heard, he was holding a candlelight vigil in front of Baro Ki'Teer. Arnab on the other hand has taken to playing PUBG mobile, while Abhijit has been playing the same old PUBG on PC. Also, we hear that Raaabo might be finishing Half-Life for the 46th time. Souvik on the other hand has been absent for most of the month and we're sad to report that it isn't something we can make fun of. Souvik, nearly died from a combination of the flu and his vices. So we've all scaled back on the amount of leg-pulling we usually indulge in. If you meet Souvik on the street, then please be good to him. The guy can't take it anymore.

If you didn't catch it the first time we mentioned it, then read this again – CTC is coming back in its sixth avatar and it's going to be bigger and better than ever before. If you have any feedback, now would be the time to speak.

DISCUSSIONS

Every month we will highlight some of the more interesting discussions happening on our Digit Forum (digit.in/forum). Head over and join our forum if you want quick answers to your queries from some of the geekiest Indians online. In case you love giving gyaan, or even if you love arguing with others, the Forum is the place you should be.

TV Shows

<https://digit.in/lis>

Hot topics in this evergreen thread for this month included "While you were sleeping", a South Korean fantasy courtroom drama series, and of course, "Lost in Space" on Netflix as well.

INSOMNIA: The Ark

<https://digit.in/insomniaark>

Get your dieselpunk fix by playing INSOMNIA: The Ark, which is set in the ruins of a giant retrofuturistic space metropolis. The environments and characters in the RPG are pretty grungy.

International shopping

<https://digit.in/intshop>

Forum members give their feedback on international shopping sites that reliably ship to India. Timeline of delivery, how to identify good sellers, and how sites handle customs are all discussed.
