

Things aren't looking too good for Indie games

PRICES ARE GOING DOWN

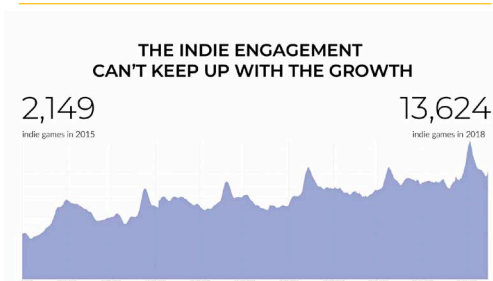

SALES ARE GOING DOWN

BUT NOT REALLY

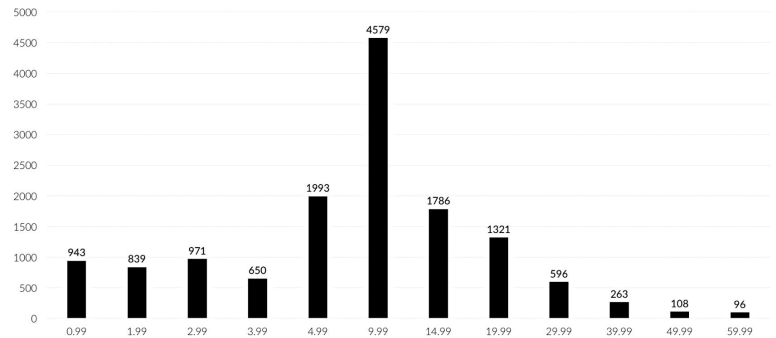

But the gross revenue needed to get into Steam's top 2000 has gone up.

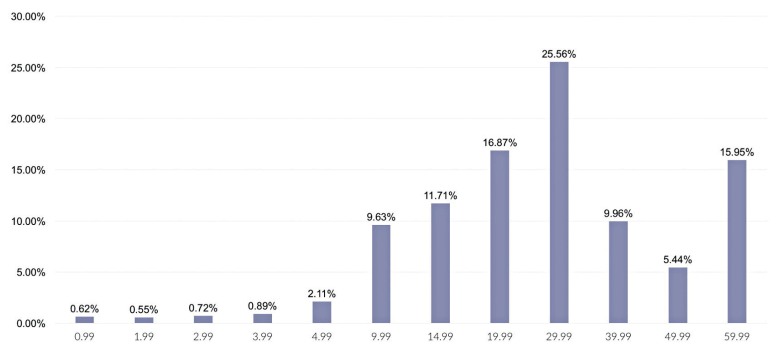

Players can't keep up with the influx of games.

The average price of games on Steam is going down

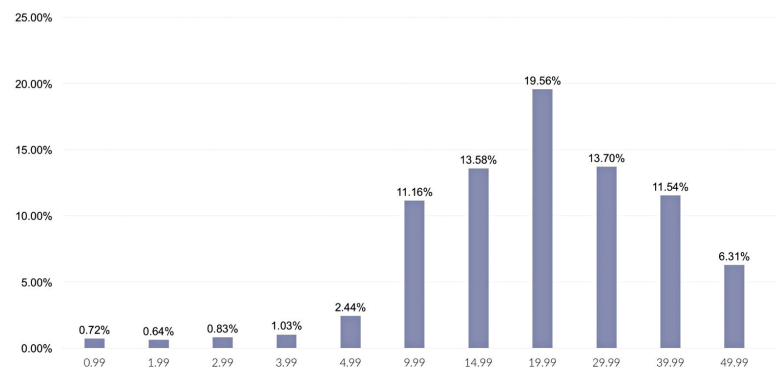

GAMES IN 2017 BY MAX PRICE

REVENUE IN 2017 BY MAX PRICE

...AND WITHOUT PUBG

While the average price of games peaks at the $10 price point, the majority of the distribution lies around the $20 to $30 price range, and of course, a huge spike for fully priced games.
