

MOVIE

Deadpool 2

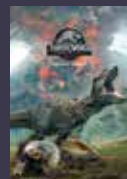

★★★★☆ | The merc with a mouth is back, and this time things really get amped up. This is an R rated family film, and after watching the movie, you will know exactly why. Deadpool is about to start a family with his girlfriend, but then things go downhill. The opening credit sequence is a homage to Bond films, with a song by Celine Dion. The previous movie was not even picked up by the studio till some mysterious person leaked the test footage. Now that the studio is fully supporting this movie, the difference shows. There are a number of jaw dropping cameos, many of which are totally unexpected. Deadpool continues to provide running meta commentary as the movie itself unfolds. This does not let up till the very end of the movie - right till the stunning post credit sequence. Unfortunately, a prominent cameo missing is that of Stan Lee. Dopinder emerges as a hero in his own right, and is given a meatier role in the sequel. One of the highlights of the movie is the relationship between Deadpool and Negasonic Teenage Warhead's girlfriend, Yukio. Deadpool himself explores a bit of his bisexual side, but it is not as fleshed out as it is in the comics. The movie is a perfect concoction of dark humour and over the top action. This is the latest in a series of movies brimming with pop culture references, that we at Digit have watched. These include Ready Player One, Avengers: Infinity War, and now Deadpool 2. Deadpool 2 pulled it off the best.

UP AND COMING

MOVIE

Jurassic World: Fallen Kingdom

A sequel to Jurassic World, Fallen Kingdom is set three years after the Jurassic World theme park is destroyed by dinosaurs. We're back on the island to save whatever dinosaurs remain from a volcanic eruption but there's mega-dinos on the island now.

Release date: June 22, 2018

MOVIE

The Incredibles 2

It's been a long time coming but the Incredibles 2 is almost here. This time around however, it's only Elastigirl who

'springs' to action. Where does this leave Mr. Incredible? With his hardest challenge yet of course - taking care of the family!

Release date: June 15, 2018

MOVIE

TAG

Surprisingly based on a true story, TAG is based on what looks like the single most epic game of TAG ever. A group of friends have had a game of tag running for years and they're still going decades later. But one of them has never been tagged, yet...

Release date: June 15, 2018

TV SHOW

Lucifer S3

★★★★☆ | While the third season of Lucifer officially began in October last year, it only recently came to an end, and on a cliffhanger no less, one that desperately left fans wanting more. Unfortunately, Fox went on a cancel spree and ending up cutting short the lives of over a dozen TV shows, Lucifer included. There still might be hope for the show, considering how Brooklyn Nine-Nine got picked up by NBC, Only time will tell.

For those of you who aren't aware of the show at all, Lucifer is a show about, well Lucifer, the devil himself. Before you write it off as some biblical show, it's not. It's more along the lines of shows like Castle or White Collar, so if you enjoyed those shows, you might enjoy Lucifer as well. It's got its ups and downs but overall, these three seasons of Lucifer have been quite enjoyable. The third season saw a new character enter into the scene, who also happens to be a new love interest for Chloe, the human Lucifer is interested in, which turns the whole thing into a weird love triangle of sorts. Funnily enough, the new character happens to be Cain, the world's first murderer, who was sentenced to immortality. Doesn't sound like much of a punishment, but well, they explain it pretty well.

All in all, it was good season, and with a cliffhanger that has you desperately hoping somebody picks the show up for a fourth season.

