Life without mobiles

<https://digit.in/nomob>

How do you plan and meet people without mobile phones? Would life be less or more romantic as a consequence? Are either boys or girls more addicted to smartphones? Can we imagine a life without tons of free data and competing telecom service providers? The forum members explore these questions in this thread. Surprisingly, even in this age, there are some forum members who do not like to be bogged down with smartphones at all!

The OffTopic Thread: Resurgence

<https://digit.in/slashb>

This controversial thread leads to the most inane topics of discussion, and is notorious for having been banned or closed on several occasions. As one forum member put it, this thread is like the /b/ of Digit. From the calorific values of roadside junk food in India to why Sunny Deol has such awesome shoulders, to live streaming of cats - this thread really has everything under the Sun, and even some things that are not.

Which is more violent?

<https://digit.in/gom>

The thread asks the question, which is more violent, movies or games? While the movies have great graphical fidelity, games allow you to experience the violence first hand, make the choice of harming someone, and get intimate with the action. What about the psychological scars inflicted by Kasauti Zindagi Ki? The consensus seems to be that by and large, movies are more violent of the two. If you disagree or agree with that, join in the discussion!

Gunda! Fan club

<https://digit.in/gunda>

The thread for dissecting the masterpiece from Kanti Shah. Is an invisible monkey driving the car? Did the monkey have a driving license? Was the same monkey in Aankhen as well? Does everyone have an aeroplane? Is the hero a coolie at an airport or a dock? How come many machine guns are firing, but only one is making a sound? We explore such deep mysteries in this thread. Reader discretion is advised, because there might be references to certain unconventional vitamin supplements.

Weirdest Dreams

<https://digit.in/dreams>

What does it mean when you fly, see big cats, lose shoes, or teeth fall out in dreams? Can you toggle light switches in dreams, read text, or see faces of people you have never seen before? We discuss many of these mysteries of dreams, and also go into techniques of how to induce lucid dreaming, and what scary episodes of sleep paralysis actually feel like. There are also interpretations of common dreams such as flying or seeing a plane crash. Reading this thread might just change how you sleep.

UFOs and Time Travel

<https://digit.in/ufott>

Was Ravan's Pushpak Viman a UFO? Some people have admitted to believing in UFOs even if there is no evidence to suggest that they are real. Another post shows how that it is very likely that there is at least one other intelligent space faring civilisation elsewhere in the universe. Are the aliens already living among us in human disguise? Does Einstein's theory of relativity allow for travel through time to be possible? Did the moon landings really take place? This is perhaps the nuttiest thread on TDF.
