

FNBRLLeaks shuts down

A legal notice was sent by Epic to FNBRLLeaks, a Fortnite leaker, causing the site to shut down to avoid legal action. <https://digit.in/jan19-59>

Black Mirror film

A reddit user stumbled upon a hidden Netflix page for Black Mirror film called 'Black Mirror: Bandersnatch'. <https://digit.in/jan19-60>

BRIGHTBURN

What happens when an alien baby crash lands on Earth and is raised by humans? There are two possibilities where the most obvious one is the alien growing up to become Superman. However, Brightburn is a retelling of this story where the alien turns out to be evil. Produced by James Gunn, we are expecting his interesting take on this story.

Release date: May 23

ARTEMIS FOWL

A race of powerful fairies that used to live among us have gone underground since a long time. 12-year old Artemis Fowl II, who is a criminal mastermind, is looking for answers to his father's disappearance. To fund his research, he kidnaps the fairy LEPrecon officer Holly Short for ransom and finds himself in the middle of a massive battle against the fairies.

Release date: Aug 9

JOKER

Arthur Fleck is a failed stand-up comedian who has been disregarded by society. The movie explores the character of Batman's arch-nemesis and his journey of ultimately turning into the psychopathic murderer. Joker is going to be a standalone movie and not connected to the DCEU in any way, with Joaquin Phoenix playing the role of Arthur.

Release date: Oct 4

GODZILLA: KING OF THE MONSTERS

We're getting an epic Godzilla movie with another monsterverse title. The humans are caught in between the monster fights. The trailer looks awesome and we can't wait to see Godzilla take on the might of the other monsters including Mothra, Rodan and the massive King Ghidorah.

Release date: May 31

MEN IN BLACK: INTERNATIONAL

The Men in Black movies have always been a funny and quirky. With the Chris Hemsworth and Tessa Thompson in the lead, and Liam Neeson as their mentor (probably) it looks like they are continuing with the same formula, but going international this time. While taking out hostile aliens, they are also fighting a mole inside the MIB.

Release date: June 14

SPIDER-MAN: FAR FROM HOME

The events of Far From Home happen immediately after Avengers: Endgame which is clear that our heroes are making a comeback. Peter Parker goes on a Euro trip for his summer vacation with his friends but comes face to face with a new villain who goes by the name Mysterio, played by Jake Gyllenhaal.

Release date: July 5

TERMINATOR 6

We don't think we got to see a good Terminator movie since Judgement Day. Not only was the movie memorable, it had iconic dialogues which are still part of pop culture after so many years. Now, the franchise is getting a reboot with Linda Hamilton coming back as Sarah Connor along with Arnold (obviously) as the Terminator.

Release date: Nov 1

STAR WARS: EPISODE IX

Perhaps the most anticipated release after Endgame. We will get to know whether the Resistance is successful in destroying the First Order. With Luke gone, Rey's journey will be crucial to the future as the last surviving Jedi. This is the last part of the sequel trilogy, so we expect many questions to be answered, and loose ends to be tied up.

Release date: Dec 19
