

digit diary

If you are ever curious about what the Digit gang is up to, this is the place to get all the inside info. From the latest game we're obsessing about to the newest intern we're driving up the wall – it's all here folks.

Like the cheerful chirping of birds heralds the coming of spring, we too at the Digit office have a signature sound that marks the changing of seasons. It was the sound of Mithun's chair screaming in agony as it broke into two that marked a change of seasons. Or you could say it marked the period in time when his fat arse broke into a new dimension. Thankfully, all that fat cushioned the blow so he's alright. For now, he has promptly swapped his chair for Arnab's. Not that it would make any difference though, as Arnab is leaving the Digit team this month for safer, boring shores. He has promised to drop by every now and then to sample some of Mithun's choicest cur-verses, we mean verses.

Speaking of things breaking, Avengers: Endgame released this month and all hell broke loose. Team members barely managed to get half-decent tickets, and have been scrambling left and right to get better options. While some of us are dedicated enough to skip the movie for work, some decided to be dedicated to the MCU and watch it smack in the middle of closing! Needless to say, whoever even tried to reveal spoilers was immediately snapped out of existence.

While the Avengers: Endgame furore has been limited to the period around its release, the Game of Thrones mania has persisted throughout the month. Every Monday saw the guys huddled around Mithun's desk, discussing possible theories that could play out in the rest of the Season. Do you still believe Bran is the Night King? We'll hold our bets until the Battle of Winterfell.

All of this pop culture mania very predictably got us delayed – no spoilers there! With the election fever gripping the country, some might even say we 'elected to be delayed'. Jokes apart, Robert might just have had it with the guys since he is dropping by personally next month, most likely to whoop them into following deadlines for a change.

Speaking of beat-up and battle, We have our own battle to win next month with the June issue on the way. Thankfully, good old Manish couldn't resist the calls of Digit for too long and is joining us again in May. Also, star Mumbai-fan and Pune-hater Dhriti are back on the team starting May, this time for good. Mithun has been seen gleefully sharpening knives, muttering 'Anniversary issue' repeatedly, awaiting the impending arrival of the two. We'll keep you updated if they survive!

Keep geeking out!

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

DISCUSSIONS

Every month we will highlight some of the more interesting discussions happening on our Digit Forum (digit.in/forum). Head over and join our forum if you want quick answers to your queries from some of the geekiest Indians online. In case you love giving gyaan, or even if you love arguing with others, the Forum is the place you should be.

Game of Thrones / ASoIaF

<https://digit.in/got>

The thread has received its yearly bump followed by a flurry of activity. The community is discussing the last season, but a few members are just beginning their watch.

Higher zoom, lower MP

<https://digit.in/zlmp>

The forum looks into the use cases of phones with a dedicated zoom lens, and how much the megapixel count of a device contributes to the actual image quality.

Graphic Design Build

<https://digit.in/gdbuild>

The forum members help put together a build for heavy video editing, photo editing and graphic design purposes, for use with Adobe software, with an overall budget of 1.45 lakh.
