WHAT'S NEW

Marvel reveals Phase 4 slate

Marvel Studio's Phase 4 film and Disney+ TV series slate seem to be something out of our dreams. Kevin Fage, President of Marvel Studios, appeared at San Diego during the Comic-Con for Marvel's 90-minute presentation, where he announced a total of 10 films and Disney + series. The films in Phase 4 have everything from prequels, sequels and a bunch of entirely new arcs. Black Widow (2020), starring Scarlett Johanson, is a prequel. Thor: Love and Thunder (2021) will see the return of Natalie Portman to the MCU.

Other films include The Eternals (2020), Shang Chi and the Legend of the Ten Rings (2021), and Doctor Strange in the Multiverse of Madness (2021). Sequels for Black Panther, Guardians of the Galaxy and Captain Marvel are also coming. On the other hand, Disney + series include The Falcon and the Winter Soldier (2020), WandaVision (2021), Loki (2021), What If (2021), and Hawkeye (2021). <https://dgit.in/Phase4>

Endgame finally breaks Avatar's box-office record

After months of anticipation and a re-release of the film with six minutes of additional footage, Avengers: Endgame has finally managed to surpass Avatar to become the highest-grossing film in box office history. The film crossed $2.7892 billion at the global box office on July 20, which tops Avatar's total gross amount and dethrones the film after a period of nine years. The re-release of Avengers:

Endgame on June 28 featured a deleted Hulk scene, a Stan Lee tribute and a post-credit scene with characters from Spider-Man: Far From Home.

However, James Cameron's Avatar 2 is scheduled to release on December 17, 2021, which will, no doubt, give the record set by Avengers: Endgame a run for its money. The record-breaking success of Avengers: Endgame was celebrated by Kevin Feige at Comic-Con in San Diego where he addressed the crowd and confirmed that the film had finally beat Avatar's long-standing record. Feige stated, "Thanks to you, Avengers: Endgame is the biggest film of all time". <https://dgit.in/EndgameHurrah>
