If you are ever curious about what the Digit gang is up to, this is the place to get all the inside info. From the latest game we're obsessing about to the newest intern we're driving up the wall – it's all here folks.

The month of February is always a hassle for us here at the test labs. Why does there have to be one month in the entirety of a year with fewer days than the rest, we don't understand. Luckily, we had that one extra day this leap year to make sure we got the mag out before the month ended. If you're reading this, do ask us for an update regarding if we made it in time...

In other news, long time readers might know that we have a bit of a rat problem here at the test labs. We thought, for a while, that we were done with them for good, but rat activity was at an all time high this month. One of them even dared to steal Adi's packet of chips right off his desk! He had just gone down to the washroom, and returned to find his chips missing. After questioning (read: accusing) the lot of us, we concluded that it was the rats. The fact that we found a nibbled up chips packet later just confirmed our suspicions. This led to Mithun making some calls and having someone come in to seal all the holes in the lab. We thought that was the end of the pesky rat infestation, but as it turns out, they nibbled through those as well...

In gaming news, Manish managed to convince Mithun to give Monster Hunter World a try. It looks like he really got into it, because he managed to finish the base game story in just about four days. Actually, we don't really know if he got into it because he hasn't picked it up since. Probably too hard for him... Adi, on the other hand, was incessantly playing Burnout Paradise. We've also been picking up our streaming frequency here as well, and we've actually been trying to get Dhriti to stream, who has been adamant about not doing it at all. However, she did drop a challenge, basically telling Mithun that if he managed to finish Pokemon Sword, she would stream any game of his choosing. However, from the looks of it as of right now, it doesn't look like Mithun is finishing Sword any time soon. Sigh...

Mithun and Adi also spent some quality time bonding this month, over a LEGO set of all things. You can read the review for the set in SKOAR! but all you need to know is that the two of them were alone together in a room with that set for two to three hours. Must be a really fun set.

QUOTE OF THE MONTH
