

GEEK CULTURE IS OUR WAY OF LIFE, AND ENCOMPASSES MOVIES, GAMES, COMICS, AND TRENDS FROM ACROSS THE GLOBE

THIS MONTH IN CULT:

In culture feature we look at some of the strangest easter eggs in films and we continue where we left off in last month's feature article about myth and psychology. After that, we've got Boo-Man hating on movie updates and in 1000-words we look at some failed attempts at wearing a mask.

Wonder Woman 1984 delayed once again

Warner Bros. Studios announced that the Wonder Woman 1984 film will be pushed yet again to October 2 amidst the COVID-19 pandemic. This is the fourth time the film has been delayed, with the original release date intended to be November 1, 2019. <https://dgit.in/WW1984delay>

WHAT'S NEW

DC Comics announces virtual convention

DC Comics has announced a free, global, virtual convention called DC FanDome. The virtual convention will be taking place on 22 August 2020 and will be accessible at DCFanDome.com only for 24 hours. Based on a blog from DC Comics, the convention will be showcasing a plethora of content with announcements from WB Games, Film, TV and Comics. You would also get to hear from the cast and creators behind some of your favourite and upcoming feature films and TV series including The Batman, Wonder Woman 1984, Zack Snyder's Justice League, SHAZAM!, and Black Adam, to name just a few. Unlike other digital events, which are linear in fashion, this one is a convention. So, you get to explore and pick and choose your route for 24-hours. DC Comics has also released an event map for the venue which includes sections such as DC Hall Of Heroes, DC WatchVerse, DC YouVerse, DC KidsVerse, DC InsiderVerse and DC FunVerse. DC Hall Of Heroes is the epicentre where all the special programming, content reveals and exclusive panels are expected to happen.

<https://dgit.in/DCFanDome>

Mark Hamill had a secret cameo in The Mandalorian

It was revealed that Mark Hamill, the actor who played Luke Skywalker in the Star Wars films, had a secret cameo in the Disney+ hit, The Mandalorian. In the Disney Gallery: The Mandalorian behind-the-scenes documentary, Hamill confirmed that he voiced the droid bartender EV-9D9, who works at the Mos Eisley Cantina on Tatooine. The droid voiced by the legendary actor was seen in episode 5 (The Gunslinger) of the first season. Mark Hamill also took to Twitter to make several other announcements regarding his secret cameos in other Star Wars films. The actor said, "Now that @themandalorian secret is out, might as well reveal I am vocally represented in all SW (Star Wars) films except the Prequels." He hinted that he played all the parts credited to one Patrick Williams. The droid EV-9D9 first appeared in Star Wars: Return of the Jedi where it tormented and tortured other droids. Seems like the droid went through quite the career change.

<https://dgit.in/Hamillcameo>

Zack Snyder reveals a sneak peek of the Snyder Cut

Zack took to Twitter to post the first-ever sneak peek at the Snyder Cut Justice League film slated for release on HBO Max in 2021. He also hinted that there's more to come at the DC FanDome virtual convention. <https://dgit.in/sneakpeek>

Michael Keaton could return as Batman

Michael Keaton is reportedly in talks to star as Batman yet again, after nearly 20 years, in the upcoming standalone The Flash film. If the deal is finalised, the actor may return for many other DC-oriented film projects as well. <https://dgit.in/KeatonBatman>

The Witcher S2 will not have multiple timelines

According to showrunner, Lauren Schmidt Hissrich, season 2 will do away with the multiple timelines but the storyline won't be completely linear as well. Hissrich also teased the introduction of more Witchers in Season 2. <https://dgit.in/WitcherS2>