WHAT'S NEW

Netflix cuts its subscription prices

Netflix got much cheaper for the average Indian. The streaming giant bucked the trend of a price hike, unlike Amazon Prime, and lowered its subscription fees by a maximum of 60 per cent. Existing users will be ushered into the new plan without any issues. Users who have opted for the Premium plan will be billed according to the new prices on the next cycle. Users will also be asked to 'Confirm Upgrade' if they wish to avail of the new prices. The price change took place on December 14, 2021, and will come into effect from the next billing cycle for members. The breakdown of the plans is as follows, The Mobile Plan is now priced at ₹149. The Basic Plan takes the biggest plunge with a massive 60 per cent drop in price at ₹199 as opposed to ₹499, previously. Even though you only receive access to standard 480p content, it's still a good deal. The Standard plan has been dropped to ₹499 from ₹649 and the Premium plan is now available at ₹649. The streaming giant is hoping that it garners more subscribers from the Indian market with content that is specifically targeted to the Indian audience.

Squid Game creator hints at Season 3

While fans are still awaiting confirmation for season 2 of the phenomenon Squid Game from Netflix, creator Hwang Dong-hyuk already has plans for season 3! The director of Squid Game fame said, "I'm in talks with Netflix over Season 2 as well as Season 3. We will come to a conclusion any time soon." This is the first time the director has publicly acknowledged the possibility of a third season of the hit TV series. Additionally, as of November, work on season 2 of Squid Game has already commenced. The director also revealed the core plot of season 2 and said that the focus of the season will be Seong Gi Hun and how he unravels the mysteries of the organisation behind the deadly game. The season will centre around the people Gi Hun meets and the ones he chases after. While nothing has been set in stone yet, the tremendous success of season 1 definitely prompts us to believe that both Netflix and the creator of Squid Game will be very interested in developing more seasons, banking on them to succeed as well as season 1 did.
