

GEEK CULTURE IS OUR WAY OF LIFE, AND ENCOMPASSES MOVIES, GAMES, COMICS, AND TRENDS FROM ACROSS THE GLOBE

THIS MONTH IN CULT: Watch some of the best anime based on science and technology, then get your mind boggled with some of our suggested movies, experience Boo-Man hating on the fact that IE was killed off, and more.

Lego 'Avatar' Set up for pre-orders

Lego has put up its first 'Avatar' set on its online store for pre-orders. The Toruk Makto & Tree of Souls set can be pre-ordered for $149.99 and is slated to ship from October 1, 2022. This launch by Lego rides on the back of the film Avatar: The Way of Water, which will hit the big screens on December 15. <https://dgit.in/log-oavatar>

WHAT'S NEW

Marvel Cinematic Universe Phase 4 – Big saga reveal soon

Much to the delight of the fans of the MCU, Marvel Studio's President, Kevin Feige, has revealed that the fans will soon start getting a taste of where Marvel's new saga is headed. There have been numerous theories about this doing rounds, especially after the release the first few Marvel Phase 4 films.

The last MCU saga ended with Avengers: Endgame's release in 2019. That also marked the end of Marvel Cinematic Universe's Phase 3. Since then, the fans have been treated with films and TV series such as Spiderman: No way home, Black Widow, WandaVision, and more recently, Doctor Strange in the Multiverse of Madness. The fans received them well, with some even making it to the top of the popularity charts.

Feige was quoted by GamesRadar saying, "I think there have been many clues already, that are at least apparent to me, of where this whole saga is going. But we'll be a little more direct about that in the coming months, to set a plan, so audiences who want to see the bigger picture can see a tiny, tiny, tiny bit more of the roadmap."

<https://dgit.in/mcusaga>

Universal Studios x Jujutsu Kaisen

In a move that will be embedded deep in pop culture history, Universal Studios Japan has confirmed a run of limited-time attractions in their theme park based on the popular Japanese anime, Jujutsu Kaisen. These attractions will be present in the park from September 16 this year until July 2, 2023. Fans of the anime, and the theme park alike, are eagerly awaiting more announcements eagerly.

To announce this collaboration, Universal Studios Japan, teased fans with a poster and a small Tweet thread which didn't really convey much information. However, a lot of buzz was generated on social media, as fans flocked to forums, expressing their thoughts and sharing their excitement with the community.

The movie, Jujutsu Kaisen 0, was released in December last year. It has since made close to 14 million yen, breaking several box-office records, becoming one of the highest-grossing anime movies of all time.

<https://dgit.in/jujutsuuniversal>

Box Office come in. Maverick is climbing...

Tom Cruise's Top Gun: Maverick has broken the record of being the actor's highest-grossing movie. The film's global box-office collection is set to touch the billion-dollar mark, having already grossed over US$900 Million. <https://dgit.in/maverickriser>

Everything you've wanted

The fifth installation Indiana Jones franchise is being touted by Frank Marshall, the film's producer, to be everything that he believes "everybody wants out of an Indiana Jones movie." The Harrison Ford starrer is scheduled to release on June 30, 2023. <https://dgit.in/indianajones5>

Chris wants to be back. No cap.

Captain America actor Chris Evans would want to return to the Marvel Cinematic Universe, not as the Captain. Recently Evans, while talking to MTV News, revealed that he would prefer playing the role of Human Torch rather than his other superhero avatar. <https://dgit.in/nocapcap>